

TREK CLOTHING: BOYS

-Examples of completed pioneer outfits for boys.-

-Pants were worn loose. Wool or linen were used. Corduroy, twill and canvas pants are good choices. Trekker in our day find that wool is to hot but that cotton work great.

-Colors include blue, black, gray, browns, especially beige and tan. Choose rather loose fitting through the crotch and thigh area to add comfort In walking,

-Pants can be purchased at a thrift store or you can use old khaki pants or even make linen pants with a simple pattern.
